

THE LAMP

JUNE 1954

The Lamp

*Presented by the Class of June 1954
West Side High School
Newark, New Jersey*

Dedication

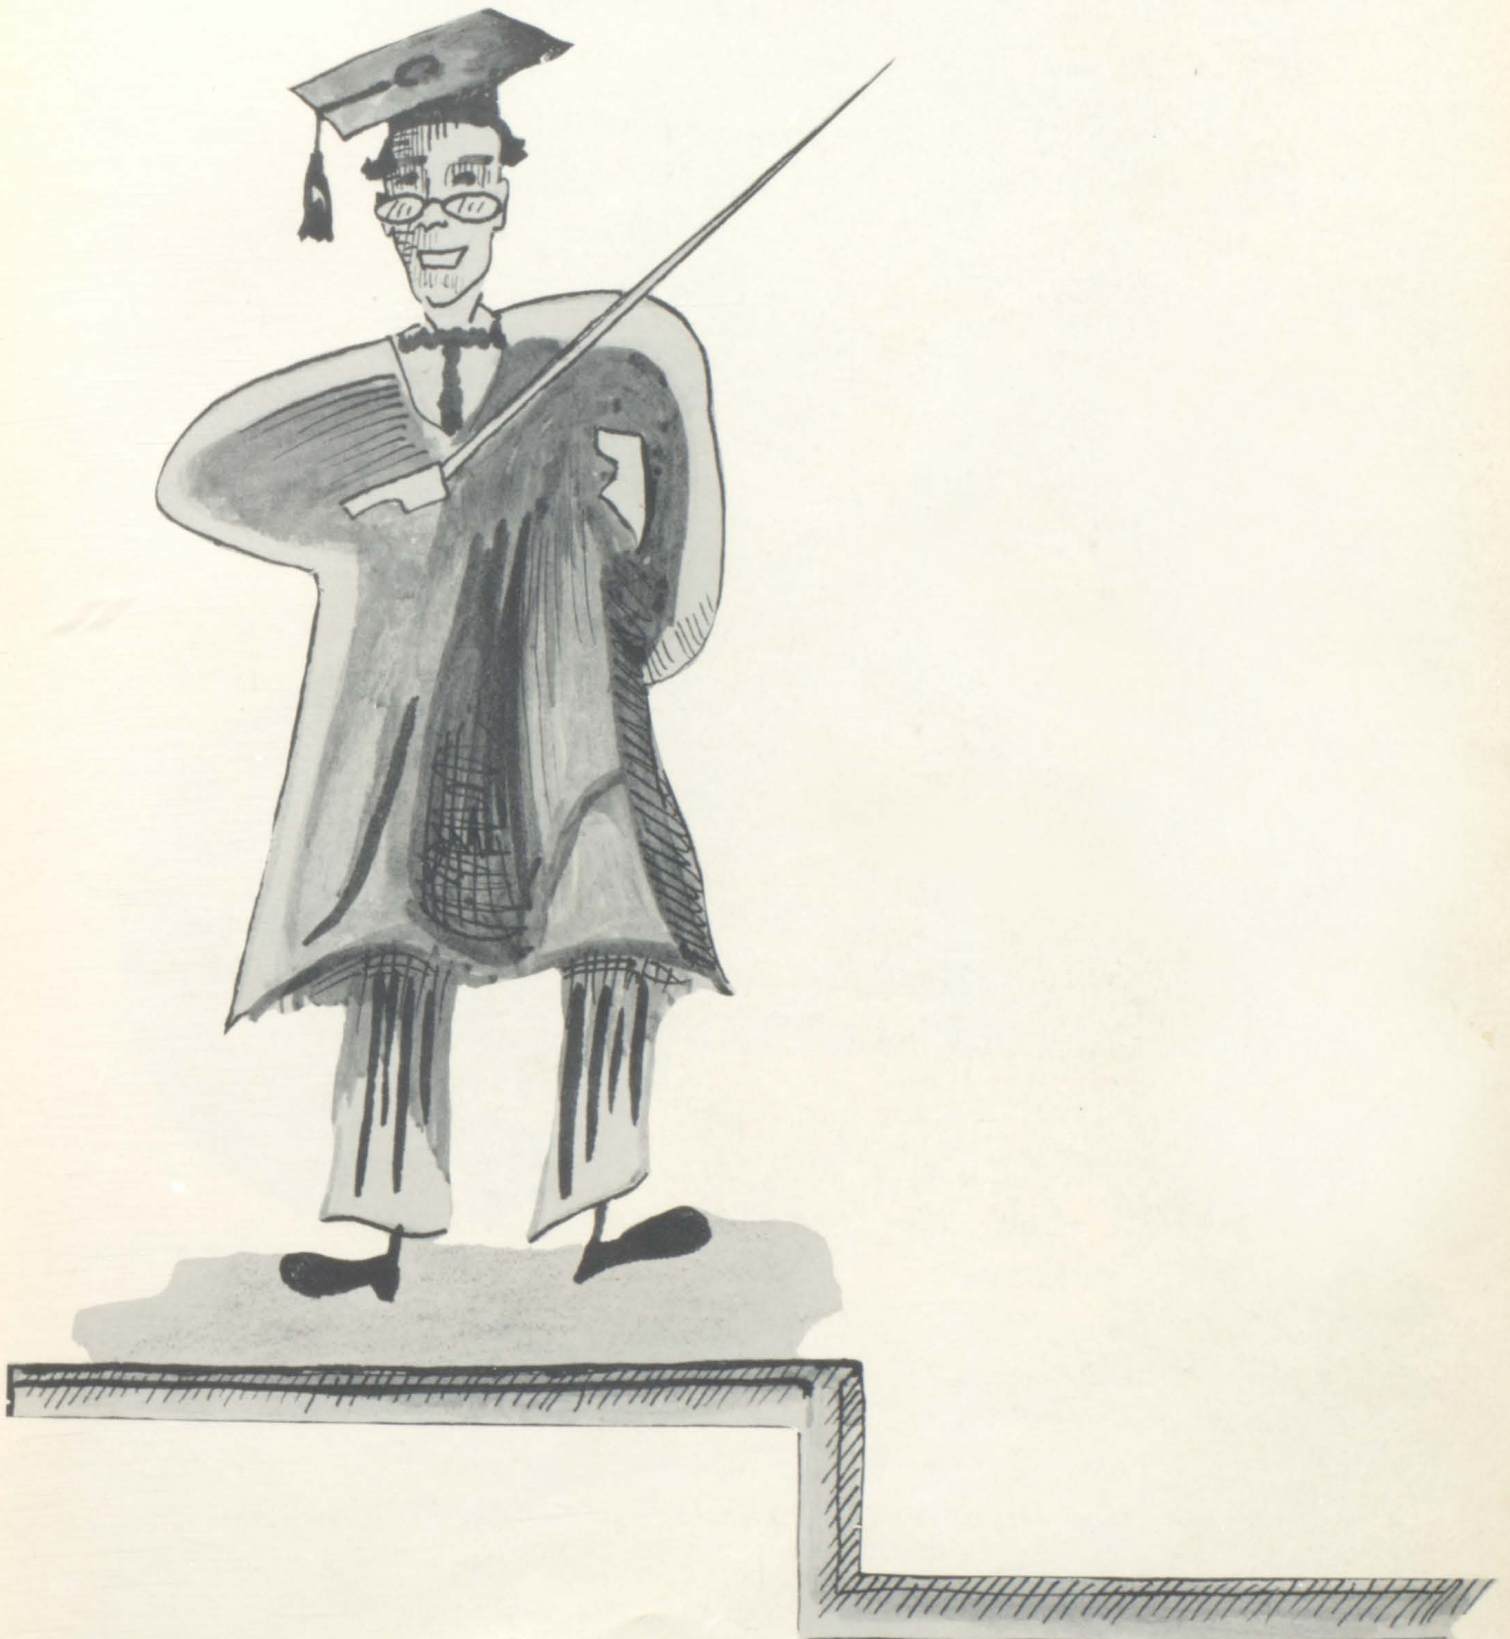

To Miss Cora E. Hill, teacher, counsellor, friend, we dedicate this, our Yearbook.

For three years you have taught us, guided us through the mazes of curricula, choices of subjects, job hunting, choice of college, and more personal problems. You have justly earned our abiding gratitude.

For all your kindness and assistance, we, the Class of June 1954, say "THANK YOU."

FACULTY...

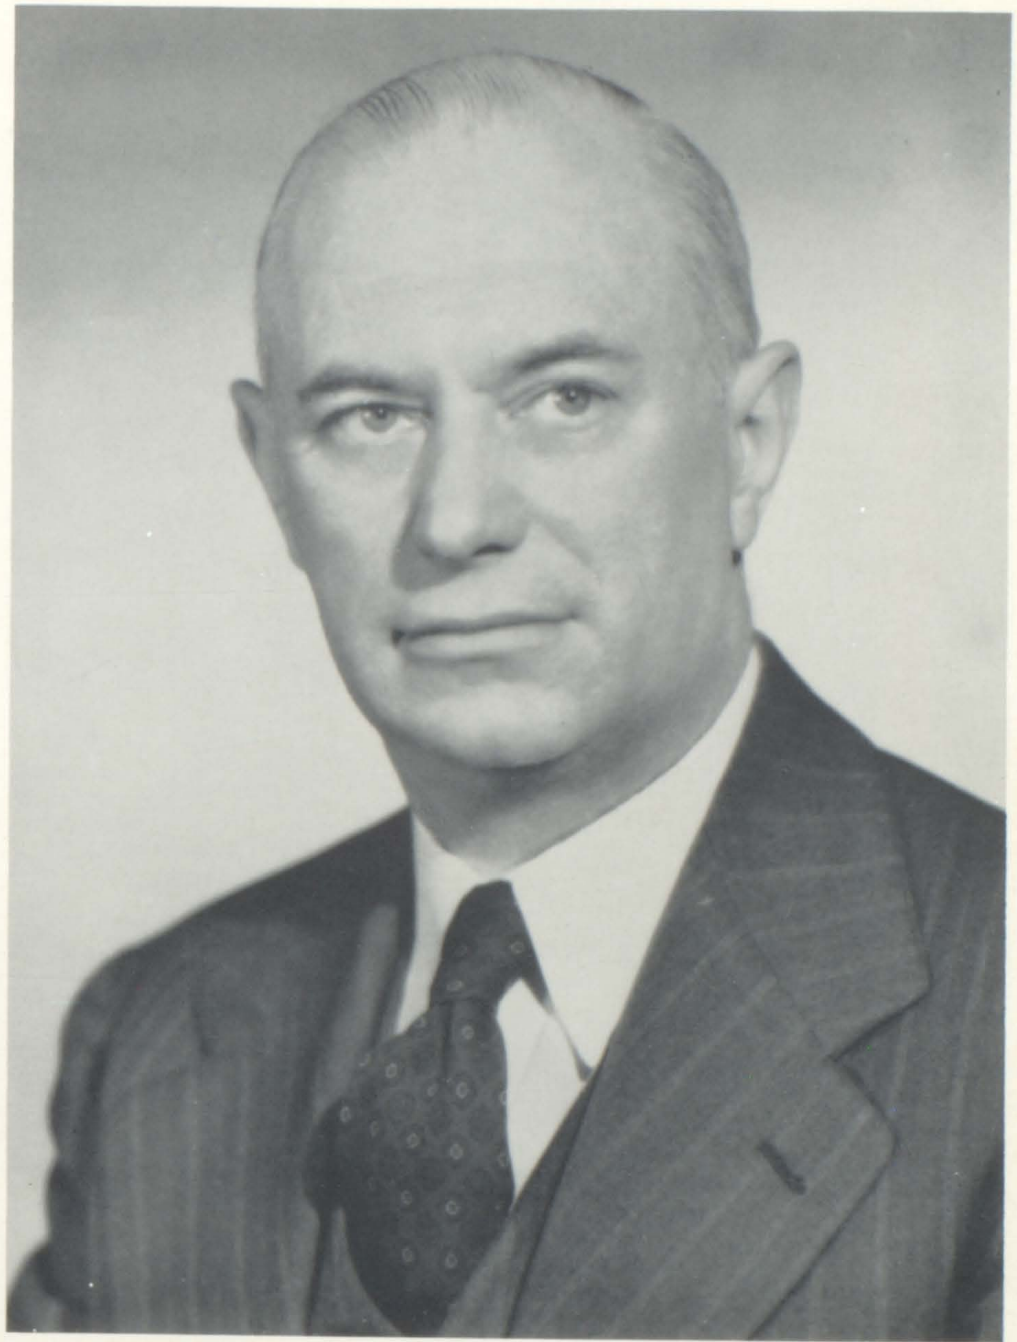

Francis B. Snavely

PRINCIPAL

An ideal of life and a fine concept of duty was expressed by the Greek historian, Herodotus, some 2400 years ago, and the very words of Herodotus are now inscribed in great letters on the New York Postoffice. The inscription reads:

"NEITHER SNOW NOR RAIN, NOR HEAT, NOR NIGHT STAYS THESE COURIERS FROM THE SWIFT COMPLETION OF THEIR APPOINTED ROUNDS."

Many members of the Class of June 1954 have kept their "appointed rounds" by excellence in scholarship and by vigorous participation in extra-curricular activities.

Edgar K. Dawson

VICE PRINCIPAL

You have completed your "appointed rounds" in your studies not by grudging acquiescence but rather with an inquiring mind and with a good sense of humor.

When you leave West Side and enter college or go into business or industry, you will at times meet with discouragement and perhaps real adversity. It is our earnest hope and prayer that in any dark hour which you may encounter that you will not allow "snow, nor rain, nor night, nor heat" to keep you from those goals of achievement which you have set for yourselves.

To Our

Senior

Katherine E. Bell

We, the Class of June 1954, should like to take this opportunity to thank you, our Senior Class Advisers, for the encouragement and support you have given us in helping to make our graduation a successful one.

Without your help and consideration, the Senior Reception, the Senior Show, and the

Advisers

Louis Kriegsfeld

Prom would not have been successful activities. We are also grateful to you for the patience and sympathetic understanding you have shown us. It is our hope that the past year has been one filled with many pleasures for you both, and that the time you have spent with the Class of June 1954 will never fade from your memories.

LAURETTE CONNORS

*Senior
Homeroom
Teachers*

*There is a tender thought of you
Down deep within our hearts,
And, when fate our paths may separate,
'Twill be powerless to take from us
Fond memories of you.*

FRANK J. HILL

ANNA M. FLANAGAN

LOUIS KRIEGSFELD

HERMINE LEITEREG

MARIE L. RUBINO

And, there, dear homeroom teachers are our sentiments about you. We appreciate your making our homerooms "homes." We formed our circles of friends, we had happy moments there, you heard us discuss our happinesses and our sadnesses, and you were patient with us through our follies. That is all a part of life and of school. We thank you for everything and we hope that you, too, will look back upon us as a class worth remembering.

EVE ZECCA

HELEN E. WALTON

EVELYN STEVENS

To Our Yearbook Adviser

Helen A. Clarke

Just saying "thank you," sometimes seems shallow and insincere. But, we mean it—we mean it. Your help to us on the yearbook cannot be measured in two little words. Those of us who have worked with you know the thought, the time, the effort, not to mention the patience you have contributed to our LAMP to make it outstanding and a keepsake worthy of pride.

We consider it a wonderful yearbook and to you goes the major part of the credit. So, Miss Clarke, YOU will be among our pleasant memories of West Side and, once again, we sincerely say, "Thank You."

School Song

In morning light and evening fall,
Through all the days of coming years—

In times when glowing futures call—

In hearts with laughter and with tears,

Our love for you will never die,

Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High.

Our love for you will never die,

Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High.

This love we have for you has grown

More bright than any treasured gold,

It deepens through each friend we've known.

Each truth that to our hearts is told.

Within the shelter of your walls,

Within the rooms where wisdom calls.

Our love for you will never die,

Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High.

Though we have need to wander far,
Close in our hearts your name will be.

Your goodness, like a radiant star,

Will rise with every memory,

And having these sweet dreams of you,

We shall remember and be true.

Our love for you will never die,

Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High.

In morning light and evening fall,

Through all the days of coming years,

In times when glowing futures call,

In hearts with laughter and with tears,

Our love for you will never die,

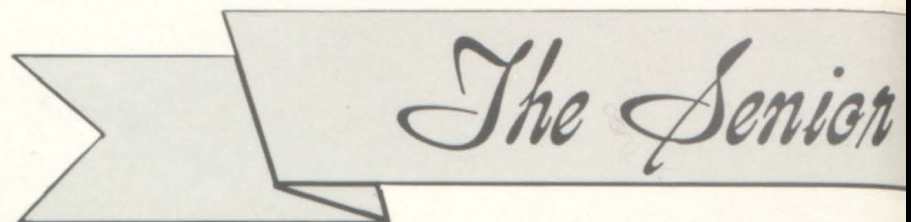

Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High!

Our love for you will never die,

Oh, Alma Mater, West Side High!
